

DRAFTING COMMITTEE
PROPOSAL
(submitted by the Delegation of France)

Article Ibis
References to the applicable law

In this Convention, except where the context otherwise requires, references to the applicable law are to the law of the forum State { including its rules of private international law } . No change proposed in the English version.

Article 5
Where obligor is situated

For the purposes of this Convention, the obligor is situated in any Contracting State where it:

- a) is incorporated;
- b) has its registered office;
- c) has its centre of control;
- d) has its principal place of business.