PRELIMINARY DRAFT UNIDROIT CONVENTION ON INTERNATIONAL INTERESTS IN MOBILE EQUIPMENT

[PREAMBLE

THE STATES PARTIES TO THIS CONVENTION,

AWARE of the need to acquire and use high-value mobile equipment and to facilitate the financing of the acquisition and use of such an equipment in an efficient manner,

RECOGNISING the advantages of asset-based financing and leasing for this purpose and desiring to facilitate these types of transaction by establishing clear rules to govern them,

DESIRING to provide broad economic benefits for all interested parties,

BELIEVING that such rules must reflect the principles underlying asset-based financing and leasing and promote the autonomy of the parties necessary in these transactions,

CONSCIOUS of the need to establish an international registration system as one of the essential features of the legal framework applicable to international interests in high-value mobile equipment,

HAVE AGREED upon the following provisions:]

Article 1 bis
References to the applicable law

In this Convention, except where the context otherwise requires, references to the applicable law are to the law of the forum State (including its rules of private international law).

Article 2
The international interest

1. – This Convention provides for the constitution and effects of an international interest in mobile equipment and associated rights.

2. – For the purposes of this Convention, an international interest in mobile equipment is an interest, constituted under Article 8, in an uniquely identifiable object of a category of such objects listed in Article 3 designated in a Protocol:

- (a) granted by the chargor under a security agreement;
- (b) vested in a person who is the conditional seller under a title reservation agreement; or
- (c) vested in a person who is the lessor under a leasing agreement.

An interest falling within sub-paragraph (a) does not also fall within sub-paragraph (b) or (c).

3. – Whether an interest to which the preceding paragraph applies falls within sub-paragraph (a), (b) or (c) of that paragraph is to be determined by the applicable law. ~~An interest falling within sub-paragraph (a) does not also fall within sub-paragraph (b) or (c).~~

4. – An international interest in an object extends to [qualified proceeds] of that object.

Article 3

~~This Convention applies in relation to an object, and associated rights relating to an object, of any of the following categories:~~

- ~~(a) —airframes;~~
- ~~(b) —aircraft engines;~~
- ~~(c) —helicopters;~~
- ~~(d) —[registered ships;]~~
- ~~(e) —oil rigs;~~
- ~~(f) —containers;~~
- ~~(g) —railway rolling stock;~~
- ~~(h) —space property;~~
- ~~(i) —other categories of uniquely identifiable object.~~

Article 4 Sphere of application

[1. –] This Convention shall apply when at the time of the conclusion of the agreement creating or providing for the international interest:

- (a) the obligor is situated in a Contracting State; or
- (b) the object to which the international interest relates ~~has been registered in a nationality register [, or a State authorised asset register,] in a Contracting State or otherwise has a close connection, as specified in the Protocol, to~~ with a Contracting State.

[2. – The fact that the obligee is situated in a non-Contracting State does not affect the applicability of this Convention.]

Article 5 Where obligor is situated

[1. – For the purposes of this Convention [other than the provisions of Article 42], a ~~party~~ the obligor is situated in a Contracting State if it is incorporated or registered or has its principal place of business or has its registered office or centre of control or its place of business in that State.

[2. – A reference in this Convention to the obligor's place of business shall, if it has more than one place of business, mean the place of business which has the closest relationship to the [agreement and its performance], having regard to the circumstances known to or contemplated by the ... at any time before or at [the conclusion of the agreement].

3. – A reference in this Convention to the obligor's place of business shall, where it does not have a place of business, mean its habitual residence.]

Article 6
Derogation

In their relations with each other, the parties may, by agreement in writing, derogate from or vary the effect of any of the provisions of Chapter III, except as stated in Articles 9(2)-(6), 10(2)-(3) and (3) (4), 13(1) and 14.

Article 7
Interpretation

1. – In the interpretation of this Convention, regard is to be had to its purposes as set forth in the preamble, to its international character and to the need to promote uniformity and predictability in its application.

~~[2. In the interpretation of this Convention, regard is to be had to the commentaries on the Convention and the Protocol].~~

3 2.– Questions concerning matters governed by this Convention which are not expressly settled in it are to be settled in conformity with the general principles on which it is based or, in the absence of such principles, in conformity with the applicable law.

CHAPTER II

CONSTITUTION OF AN INTERNATIONAL INTEREST

Article 8
Formal requirements

An interest is constituted as an international interest under this Convention where the agreement creating or providing for the interest:

- (a) is in writing;
- (b) relates to an object ~~in respect of which the chargor, conditional seller or lessor has power to enter into the agreement~~ dispose;
- (c) enables the object to be identified in conformity with the Protocol; and
- (d) in the case of a security agreement, enables the secured obligations to be ~~identified~~ determined ~~], but without the need to state a sum or maximum sum secured]~~.

CHAPTER III

DEFAULT REMEDIES

Article 9
Basic remedies of chargee

1. – In the event of default ~~in the performance of a secured obligation by the chargor,~~ the chargee may, to the extent that the chargor has so agreed, exercise any one or more of the following remedies:

- (a) take possession or control of any object charged to it;
- (b) sell or grant a lease of any such object;
- (c) collect or receive any income or profits arising from the management or use of any such object; or (d) apply for a court order authorising or directing any of the above acts.

2. – Any remedy given by sub-paragraph (a), (b) or (c) of the preceding paragraph shall be exercised in a commercially reasonable manner [and by lawful means]. A remedy shall be deemed to be exercised in a commercially reasonable manner where it is exercised in conformity with a provision of the security agreement except where ~~the court determines that~~ such a provision is manifestly unreasonable.

3. – A chargee proposing to sell or grant a lease of an object under paragraph 1 otherwise than pursuant to a court order shall give reasonable prior notice in writing of the proposed sale or lease to:

- (a) interested persons specified in paragraph 6 (a) and (b); and
- (b) interested persons specified in paragraph 6 (c) who have given notice of their rights to the chargee within a reasonable time prior to the sale or lease.

4. – Any sum collected or received by the chargee as a result of exercise of any of the remedies set out under paragraph 1 shall be applied towards discharge of the amount of the secured obligations.

5. – Where the sums collected or received by the chargee as a result of the exercise of any remedy given in paragraph 1 exceed the amount secured by the security interest and any reasonable costs incurred in the exercise of any such remedy, then unless otherwise ordered by the court the chargee shall pay the excess to the holder of the international interest registered immediately after its own or, if there is none, to the chargor.

6. – In this Article and in Article 10 “interested persons” means:

- (a) the chargor;
- (b) any ~~surety~~ person who, for the purpose of assuring performance of any of the obligations in favour of the chargee, gives or issues a suretyship or demand guarantee or a standby letter of credit or any other form of credit insurance;
- (c) ~~any person entitled to the benefit of any international interest which is registered after that of the chargee;~~

~~(d) (c) any other person having rights subordinate to those of the chargee in or over the object of which notice in writing has been given to the chargee within a reasonable time before exercise of the remedy given by paragraph 1(b) or vesting of the object in the chargee under Article 10(1), as the case may be.~~
